

WINGS OF FALCON

Issue 007

JANUARY Edition, 2026

Menstrual Health & Hygiene Management Awareness Rally.

On 4th January, Rotary Bangalore Indiranagar (RI District 3192) spearheaded a Menstrual Health and Hygiene Management Awareness Rally to encourage open dialogue and promote informed practices around menstrual wellness. The Bike and Car Rally commenced in Bengaluru and culminated in Malavalli, symbolizing a collective journey toward breaking taboos and normalizing conversations on menstrual health.

During the rally, impactful awareness sessions were conducted in schools, educating students on menstrual hygiene, self-care practices and sustainable alternatives. Cloth sanitary pads were distributed to promote safe, affordable and eco-friendly menstrual solutions. This meaningful initiative was further strengthened by the generous sponsorship of cloth pads by the Rotary Club of E Pune Diamond.

The rally marked a significant step toward empowering young minds, fostering awareness, and nurturing a healthier, more informed community.

“When we choose awareness over silence and education over stigma, we create a future filled with dignity and confidence.”

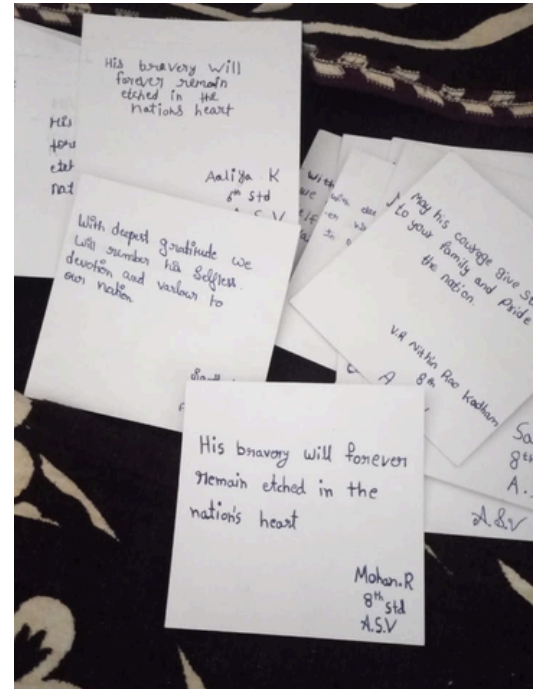

“With January comes Quarter Three — bold in vision, united in service and soaring in Falcon spirit.”

Indian Army Day Gratitude Initiative

On the occasion of Indian Army Day, observed on 15th January, the Rotaract Club of Falcon Youth, in collaboration with ConnectFor, organized a heartfelt gratitude initiative to honor the families of our brave martyrs.

As part of the activity, members penned letters expressing deep appreciation and respect for the sacrifices made by the martyrs and their families. In association with Ashoka Shishu Vihara College, students were also encouraged to participate in writing gratitude letters, fostering in them a deeper understanding of service, sacrifice, and national pride.

This meaningful initiative not only paid tribute to the nation's heroes but also instilled a strong sense of patriotism and gratitude among young minds. The club extends its sincere appreciation to ConnectFor for facilitating this impactful opportunity

RCB Speaker Series – Distributed Systems

The Rotaract Club of Falcon Youth, collaborated with Rotaract Club of Bangalore, for the RCB Speaker Series on 3rd January via Google Meet, featuring an engaging session on Distributed Systems. Led by Ms. Varuni HK from Couchbase the session highlighted how modern modern applications manage speed, availability and accuracy, simplifying complex concepts through practical insights. It was a valuable learning experience for participants keen on technology and system architecture.

"January arrives like a fresh breeze of possibility, opening Quarter Three with courage in our hearts and the Falcon wings ready to rise higher."

WINTER BLANKET DISTRIBUTION DRIVE — PHASE 2

Furthering its dedication to community outreach, the Rotaract Club of Falcon Youth successfully carried out Phase 2 of its Winter Blanket Distribution Drive on 15th January at RR Nagar.

The initiative aimed to extend warmth and care to individuals residing in Blue Tent settlements, benefiting over 100 individuals during the harsh winter season. The drive was made possible through the generous support of Rtn. Minnku Buttar from Rotary Club of Bangalore, whose sponsorship played a key role in the distribution.

With the support of Project Smile Trust, Falconites volunteered wholeheartedly to ensure the blankets reached those in need. The initiative reflected the true spirit of compassion, collaboration, and meaningful service.

CLEAN LOOP INITIATIVE

On 21st January, the Rotaract Club of Falcon Youth carried out Clean Loop, an eco-conscious initiative dedicated to responsible plastic waste management and recycling.

Leading the effort, the club's Sergeant-at-Arms, PP Rtr. Lakshitha M, collected and segregated plastic waste accumulated over several months, which was then handed over to AYYA Management in Goa for recycling.

“A new season unfolds with renewed determination and shared ambition — where unity strengthens our stride and purpose guides every step forward.”

COMMUNITY CLEAN-UP DRIVE – HALASURU LAKE

As part of its commitment to environmental sustainability, the Rotaract Club of Indiranagar organized a community clean-up drive at Halasuru Lake.

Joining hands in this impactful initiative, the Rotaract Club of Falcon Youth actively participated in clearing plastic waste and litter from the lake premises. Volunteers collectively gathered 5–7 bags of waste, contributing to the restoration of the area’s cleanliness while spreading awareness on environmental responsibility.

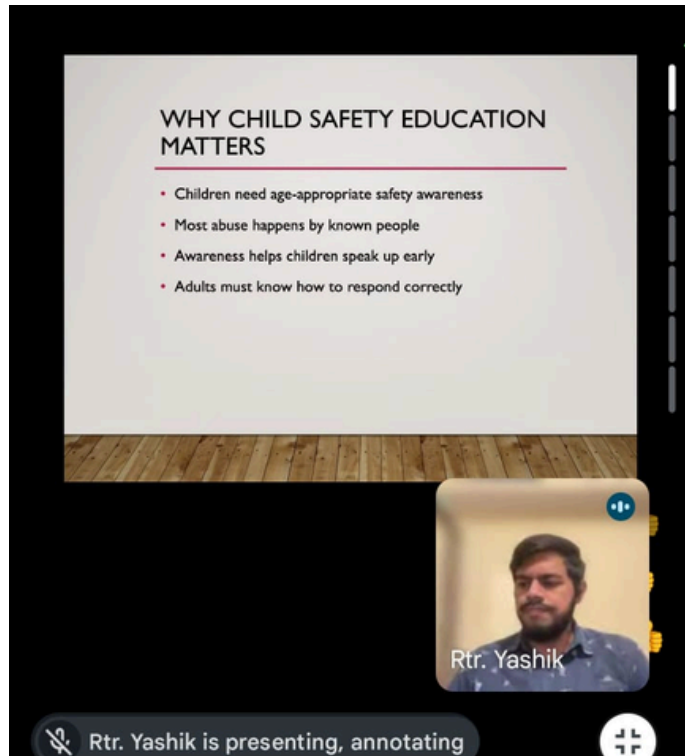

The drive stood as a strong reminder of our shared duty to protect natural spaces and work together toward building a cleaner, greener city.

“Stronger together and focused on impact, we embrace this phase with confidence, commitment and the will to make a difference.”

Training for Good & Bad Touch

On 27th January, Rotaract Koramangala, in association with the Rotaract Club of Acharya Bangalore B-School, organized a training session on Good & Bad Touch for Rotaractors.

The Rotaract Club of Falcon Youth actively took part in the online session, which aimed to equip members with the knowledge and sensitivity required to educate school students up to Grade 5 on personal safety and boundaries. The session was facilitated by Rtr. Yashik P K, who provided valuable guidance on addressing such topics with care and responsibility.

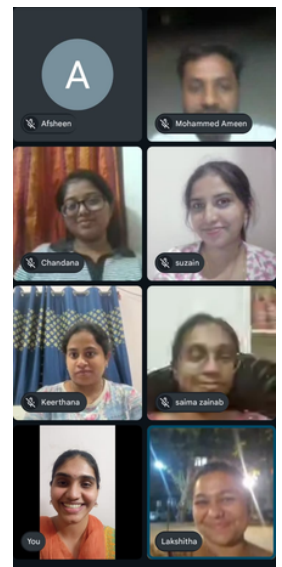

The training strengthened the commitment of Rotaractors to foster safer spaces for children through awareness, education, and proactive engagement.

7th Board of Directors Meeting

On 30th January, the Rotaract Club of Falcon Youth convened its 7th Board of Directors Meeting, bringing together board members to review progress and plan forthcoming initiatives.

The meeting provided a focused platform to evaluate recently completed projects, discuss upcoming activities and strengthen internal coordination through constructive dialogue and collective decision-making.

It reflected strong teamwork and a shared commitment to ensuring a well-organized and impactful Rotaract year.

“As calm days set the rhythm, we continue our journey of service, steady in commitment, united in purpose and driven by the will to make a difference.”